

Ace Holmes leads Peaks assault

IAN HOLMES, from Keighley, was favourite for Sunday's Three Peaks race. Almost 500 runners descended on Horton-in-Ribblesdale for the 20-plus miles pull over Penyghent, Whernside and Ingleborough.

The race - the 47th annual Peaks round - always attracts big numbers and this year was part of the FRA's English championship.

For all the winners and how locally-based runners fared see Friday's KEIGHLEY NEWS and CRAVEN HERALD

Fell champ Ian Holmes in action at the head of the pack