

Holmes alone on fell

IAN HOLMES continued his domination of the Auold Lang Syne fell race with victory in the Penistone Hill event on New Year's Eve.

Bingley Harriers club-mate, Sharon Taylor, clinched the women's title after second place last year.

Peter Haworth won the Under-18 title at the traditional event which brought the curtain down on a superb year for local athletes.

Pictures show: Ian Holmes (left) racing to the finishing line with Sharon Taylor (right) leading the women home.

Keighley Craven AC chairman Tony Minikin leads a group (top).

