

16th STOOP RACE

18th DECEMBER 2005 5M/800FT

27 year old Andi Jones beat joint English champions Simon Bailey & Robert Hope, and denying Robert his 5th straight win, on a very cold icy day from a record 298 runners, in one of the most competitive fields this race has ever seen.

Ian Holmes who turned 40 in early December, fittingly chose this race as his veteran debut, Ian has a great affinity with this race having previously won it 10 times outright, could he be setting his sights for a veteran 10 out of 10 ?
35 year old Chesterfield Policewoman Wendy Barnes from Barnsley Harriers finally won the womens race after many 2nds and 3rds here, and hopefully is overcoming injury problems to again gain a Yorkshire fells vest. Keighley and Cravens Christine Preston is impressively improving with every race, a true example of what dedication and determination can do for you.
