

23rd SOREEN STANBURY SPLASH
22nd JANUARY 2006 7MILE/1200FT NEW ROUTE

There seems to be no way to defeat Ian Holmes at this race, last year he won 10 straight wins, and now incredibly at 40 years old, he won again to make it 11 wins, to dominate this race where every finisher receives an energy giving Soreen maltloaf; hence it's nickname the Maltloaf Run.

A last minute route change in Ponden Valley at the request of English Nature, meant according to the feedback afterwards, this was actually a better route, with scenic views as you raced round the valley head, with the whole 292 runners spread eagled round escarpment in the warm summer like conditions.

Like Ian, Natalie White is also the current Yorkshire Fells Champion, and retained the oil painting trophy with 29th place overall, and with boyfriend Tim Austin 2nd, their car was well laden with prize booty. Natalie easily beat 2003 & 2004 winner Sharon Taylor with improving Tamara Hird 3rd why does the cheeky girl run in black & red hooped socks? 33 year old cyclist cum runner, Robin Bradbury, who works at Aire Valley Cycles, won the locals trophy for the 3rd year running with 19th place, with previous winner Colin Moses 2nd and Paul Crabtree 3rd.

81 juniors competed in the Soreen Quarry runs with 2 new records being achieved by GU12 Rosie Hellawell & GU10 Bo Haywood, 30 U8's completed, we're starting them young on the Soreen!

Why not try maltloaf toasted or better still use it in bread & butter pudding.....it's yummmmy!!
