

17th April 2007 Bunny Run Three (The Best everR) 3mile/300ft

Best fell runner ever? Keighley born and bred Ian Holmes who runs for Bingley Harriers achieved another milestone in his illustrious career in winning an amazing 25 Bunny Runs ahead of the 212 strong field. The 41 year old has won all the classic races – 3 Peaks – Ben Nevis – Snowdon – Scafell – Burnsall – you name it his name is on the trophy, and not just once. So the accolade of best fell runner ever rests nicely on his shoulders. To acknowledge this BR achievement he was presented with a statue of Billy Whizz, the Beano comic cartoon character, who some people at the prize giving thought he had a striking resemblance to. The statue was inscribed with 'To commemorate Ian 'Billy Whizz' Holmes winning 25 Bunny Runs', on the night Ian reduced his own course record by 10 seconds to 15 minutes dead, with youngster Jonathan Hare also inside Ian's old time of 15.10. Traveling from his home in the Lake District former Sky Running world champion, British and English fells champion Robert Jebb the guest celebrity finished 3rd, and with Martin Peace Bingley Harriers took the team chocolate ahead of Sports Camps Keighley. Last years BR1 winner, Scary Mary Wilkinson another Bingley international returned to break Jo Buckley's ladies record by a massive 69 seconds and took the Egg Stage in 4.08, still 7 seconds shy of Blue Haywood's Egg Stage record – come on Mary! Mel Hyder again broke the FU14 record with FU16 Emma Flanagan having a fantastic run in 3rd. FV40 Alison Bennett who finished 7th lady also set a new FV40 record of 22.00, but with Diane Hagger 9th and FU16 Catherine Gibbons 15th Ilkley Harriers took home the ladies team chocolate. In the mens Egg Stage Matthew 'Two Dogs' Pierson won yet again but had Ian Holmes breathing down his neck at the line. As is customary the legendary chocolate throw out progressed to a new dimension with it actually raining chocolate in the Old Sun Hotel prize giving, where young and old eggthusiastically relived the evening race on the big screen. Winner of the Crosstrax prize shoe draw was 8th lady Holly Page of Halifax Harriers. Guess the winning ladies time competition winner was Gillian Sessford, we will check she got the chocolate egg - Thomas! Next week sees world downhill mountain bike champion Karen Ballantine racing in her rainbow jersey & donning the celebrity bunny ears and nose! Why not look on www.photos-dsb.co.uk for photo's of the event!
