

Ringling out a fantastic year Jonny Brownlee who won Olympic Triathlon bronze in London and is the World Tri Champion won the 19th Daleside Auld Lang Syne fell race, in proper Yorkshire fell running conditions. The howling wind and driving rain, swollen river crossing and atrocious underfoot conditions just added to the 22 year olds victory and the enjoyment of the 376 runners taking part. He will now be immortalised on the Daleside Old Leg Over beer label for 2013, just like his brother Alistair who won last year. 'This is the first Woodentops race I've ever won, which is very satisfying as I've competed in these races since I was 10 years old, so this means a lot. I was always confident of winning, but the weather made it very interesting. The descent to the river crossing was standing water on a sloping hillside, which isn't my forte, how Tom Addison managed to catch me there was astonishing. Once across the river the final climb was testing but I managed to get the gap, but Tom never gave up chasing.' Said Jonny afterwards. Tom the current English U23 fells champion finished only 18 seconds down and is having a fine Christmas having won Wansfell. His cousin Mark Addison finished 3rd over a minute behind before 12 times ALS winner Ian Holmes won the V40 title for the 7th time. Jonny led Bingley Harriers to the mens team prize with Ian Holmes and Martin Peace.

Another athlete ringling out the year in style was European Mountain Running champion Annabel Mason, who finished 4th in the worlds and recently finished 5th in the European cross country championships she finished an incredible 11th overall which is no mean feat given she is only 16 years of age. Annabel had a neck and neck race with 3 times ALS winner Olivia Walwyn Bush and only 11 seconds separated them at the finish. Annabel was running her first ever Woodentops senior race having won the junior Quarry Run races several times previous. Recent Chevin Chase winner Victoria Wilkinson the current British Uphill champion finished 3rd with last years champion Katie Walshaw 4th. Durham University Old Girls won the team prize with Olivia, Seonaid Thompson and Aiveen Fox.

A very special thanks must go to all the marshals who helped in these atrocious conditions, Ben Mounsey and Clive Greatorex optimized this by standing knee deep in the freezing river aiding runners across, Sarah Rowell and Mick Fryer were on the highest moorland stretches and Ian Page was sweeper on the day making sure you all returned back to Penistone Hill safely. Official timer Wendy Holder, number recorders Carole Fryer and George Elmes, result runner Emily Elmes, results team Shirley Wood, Stan Hemmingway, Keith Lodge, Lisa Hinchcliffe, young smiley Alex. Out on course Ian Lewis - gate, Pete Clarke - gate, Russell Stead - road crossing. Dressed in full Scottish regalia Ilkley Harrier Callum Carslaw used his lungs to good effect managing to play the bagpipes on your way out and for most the return journey until his fingers were too cold to function. These people deserve the highest praise for sacrificing their time for your enjoyment. Happy New Year, good running in 2013, long may you stay fit and healthy.
