

8th APRIL 2014 BUNNY RUN TWO 3MILE/300FT

31 Year old Tom Adams fresh from finishing fourth at the English championship race at Pendle four days earlier returned to his favourite hunting ground and promptly won the Egg Stage for the 11th time in 3.27 and kept the pace too hot to allow Jack Simpson and Max Wharton any chance of victory. Tom went on to record his 6th Bunny win ahead of another impressive field of 290 on the dry cool evening, although underfoot it was tacky in parts. ' After being pipped to the post by James Hall on the final hill at Bunny One, I came up with a new game plan for Bunny Two, I said to myself, now don't go off too fast, think about the bigger picture rather than going flat out for the Egg stage. But when it came to the night, the plan went out of the window and as soon as Dave bellowed 'GO', I was running flat out after the Egg Stage win. With no James Hall running this week, I was able to take the win with Max Wharton hot on my heels, so I decided to let him pass and tuck in behind to preserve a bit of energy for the Long Lap. It wasn't long before I nipped back in front and went for it. I felt surprisingly strong after racing at Pendle Hill at the weekend and had enough left in the tank to power up the final climb and into the finish. With all the up and coming talent shining through at the Bunnies, it's hard to know how much longer I'll be able to keep up! Said Tom with his arms full of chocolate goodies. Jack took second and Max third, first V40 winner was again Paul Tiffany chased home by first BU16 Matthew Barnes and second BU16 Chris Law. John Convery in 26th overall won the V50's while Malcolm Pickering again took the V60's just out sprinting his son James to the finish line. Wharfedale won the team again this time with Jack Smith, fourth, Sam Hagggar, sixth and Marc Sennett 12th. Euan Brennan won the BU14 just ahead of last weeks winner Oliver Rees and one place ahead of Euan was first lady and Bunny girl Katie Walshaw, who again dominated the race to win the Egg Stage for the 13th time and the race for the 12th. But top Holmfirth and Bunny honours had to go to the only record breaker on the night in her first ever appearance, Helen Berry, who celebrated her 40th birthday just four days previous managed to take a second off club mate Kath Farquhar's 2010 record. FV50 Gill Myers and FV60 Aileen Baldwin again dominated their age groups while at the other end of the scales Erica Byram won the GU16 and finished third lady overall with Tegan Knappy winning the GU14 category again. Holmfirth easily won the ladies team with Katie, first, Helen, second and Erica third. The race video on the big screen had more comedy value this week since Abigail Knowles our director captured Logan Hargreaves Madhas doing a spectacular mud spill which was appreciated by all the runners at the prize giving. Once again the night was rounded off with that night's winners Tom and Katie hurling crisps, Haribo packs, sweets, lollies, chocolates and of course the deadly Cadbury's Creme Eggs into the eager crowd. See you all for more Bunny Mayhem next Tuesday remember 7-30pm start!!
