

4TH APRIL 2017 BUNNY RUN ONE 3MILE/300FT

Spring was definitely here with the sun shining on Penistone Hill and 17 year old Matthew Merrick didn't hang around as he stormed 400m race pace to his first ever Egg Stage victory and was overjoyed, especially since last year he tried to win at BR3, but was out manoeuvred by Jack Wood. Ladies Egg Stage victory went to 2016 BR series winner Ruby Sykes literally one stride ahead of Sarah Hodgson, giving 20 year old Ruby two Egg Stage wins now. Joe Baxter paced his race to perfection and P&B team mate Matt Lockyer had enough on his hands to hold off 16 year old Jack White of City of Norwich AC, who was on his annual pilgrimage to the Bunnies and gets better each time. 'For me the first Bunny Run of the year signifies two things, FINALLY light evenings and mid-week races are back!! And what better way to spend one of those evenings than running 'eyeballs out' over a three mile route in a quarry?! After the pre-race formalities, which includes Dave 'rabbiting on' but mainly shouting abuse at me which of course I am honoured to receive, we were off! Elbows out! Thankfully I was all aware that Matt Merrick was out to try topple the now infamous 'Egg Stage' record on the first shorter lap so I knew he'd 'hop' off quick. Either that or he was just after some camera time. Like a scolded Rabbit he was gone! Matt is quick, but I knew he couldn't hold that sort of pace throughout the whole race and from the first climb I managed to reel him in and take all the glorious, and there were many, chocolate prizes which at the prize giving were stacked up to my eyeballs! Another great evening had by all!' said Joe. P&B won the team chocolate with Joe, Matt and Neal Crampton in 17th ahead of Ilkley. Will Kerr won the V40, Chris Jones the V50, Malcolm Pickering the V60 and Peter Ellerton the V70, while Cameron Reilly in 13th the BU17 and Alexander Thompson the BU15. 'I was chuffed to bits with my first ever vet 50 category win, but gutted that once again I was beaten to the family honours by daughter Alice, I spent a lot of the race wondering where she was until she shot past me coming back down the hill on the last lap! Alice had an exceptional run to finish second lady after falling over on the start line! Alice is a bit sore, but the chocolate prizes cures all!' said Chris. Bunny winner Sarah Hodgson gives her race account, 'The last time I lined up at these Penistone Hill Quarries, I was 11 years old - and to this day I still have the certificate from that Withins Curly Wurly Rat Run. Fast forward a decade, and here I was again, lured into another of Dave's races - and it didn't disappoint. Gone were the Cadbury's Curly Wurlys, in with the Creme Eggs, but beyond that not much has changed. With Katie Walshaw marked as absent (who has more bunny run wins to her name than I have fingers to count on) the race was open, and it was on! The start was the usual melee that only fell runners will tolerate, creeping forward until suddenly we were off, limbs flying everywhere, with Alice Jones unsuccessfully taking on a fight with the floor, major kudos to her for getting back up to finish second! Egg Stage chaos ensued, and whilst I battled my way through a throng of strapping young lads, the leaders were already way off in to the distance. As we came down the hill, I flew past Ruby Sykes, but with her legs still sharp from 400m racing at the weekend, she wasn't going to let the win go that easily. Ruby took the victory on the prestigious Egg Stage and I had to settle for second just behind. But no time to panic - the main event of the show was still to come. With Ruby's legs full of lactic from our little scrap, it was time to inject some pace in to this race! Down the hill, back up again, round the hill, down the hill, up the hill, down in to the quarry to finish - it's a miracle I made it, navigation is not my forte. But little did I know, crossing the finish line as first lady was only half the job. Half an hour later, down at the pub, my legs were buckling under the weight of carrying so many prizes - enough chocolate to last until Christmas at least. Update: two days post race, and on the current trajectory, I'll have cleaned the lot up in time for Easter. A list of Easter Egg prizes longer than my arm was then handed out, before the grand finale: the chocolate throw out. Never have I felt so popular as when I was the beholder of so many sugar based goods. The charm didn't last long though, as my poor hand-eye co-ordination promptly created two cases of Creme Egg induced black-eyes, and one concussion. They did say fell running was brutal. Thanks for such a fun evening and congratulations to Joe Baxter for taking the men's win. I'll be back, and this time I won't leave it ten years!. Showing strength and determination beyond her years Alice Jones, the current English GU12 Fells champion, Yorkshire XC GU15 champion and the Northern XC GU15 champion was accidentally tripped at the start and ended up leaving the start line last and was blooded on her knee and arm, but undeterred Alice set off with a vengeance, her true Yorkshire grit showed through as she raced passed 222 competitors to finish second lady and first FU15 in 47th position. A quick patch up at the finish and 13 year old Alice was ready for the Bunny photo call. Alice even managed to lead Sophie Martin and sister Emily Jones to the Wharfedale Harriers team chocolate. Janet Wright won the FV40, Alison Weston won the FV50 and Aileen Baldwin the FV60. A great fun night, race video on the big screen, soup and roll, chocolate prizes galore and the finale the chocolate throw out by winners Joe and Sarah, well done to everyone and thanks to all our helpers. Bunny Run Two next week 7.15pm start, see you there.
