

16TH APRIL 2013      BUNNY RUN THREE      3MILE/300FT

Gill Myers, 53, did what she said she was going to do last week, 'I'll just have to try harder next week', it paid off handsomely rewriting her own FV50 record by 13 seconds and being ecstatic at the finish. Gill was literally jumping for joy and her Wharfedale team mates and friends were celebrating her success too. This was all the more unexpected since Gill had competed in the tough Silent Valley championship race in Ireland over the weekend, where she had won the FV50 category. Katie Walshaw won her tenth BR and the Egg Stage for the eleventh time and with this won the overall series for the fourth time running. Chasing Katie home was Claire Green with Caroline Lambert third and FU16 winner Elizabeth Greenwood fourth, in the FU14 Lucy Byram just won from Erica with only five seconds separating them. Holmfirth ladies won the team chocolate with Katie, FV40 winner Kath Farquhar 6th and Lucy Byram 8th. Tom Adams fresh from his wedding anniversary weekend in Barcelona returned to dominate the race again winning the Egg Stage for the ninth time and recording his fifth win. Max Wharton finished second just ahead of V40 Ian Holmes who won the overall series for the seventh time, whilst in fourth Lewis Byram won the U16 category. In the U14, Matt Barnes of Pendle AC won again, Paul Mitchell the V50, Malcolm Pickering V60 and Peter Covey the V70 record holder returned to win. Bingley Harriers with Ian 3rd, Andy Brown 9th and Robin Lawrence 10th took the team chocolate. Once again fancy dress was in evidence with Maria Parkin and Olivia Loftus running as giraffes, Danny Smith as a dragon and Lewis Metcalfe in his jockey silks. After the BR3 prize giving it then went on to the Overall Series prizes and Bunny Beer, a long night with chocolate going on forever, but this didn't stop the crowded Old Sun Hotel from Bunny mayhem erupting when Elizabeth Greenwood and Daisy Mae Smith helped Dave and Eileen do the customary chocolate throw out.

See you all for more Bunny Mayhem next week at the Bunny Run Relay, remember if you can't find a team just turn up and we will arrange to find you a team to run with, 7-30pm start!!
