

BUNNY RUN THREE
TUESDAY 19TH APRIL 2005 3MILE/300FT

The Kendal home of Rob Jebb and partner Sharon Taylor is more the sweeter after taking their first ever Bunny wins on a cool dry evening, although the ground underfoot was wetter than of late, making the steep slippery banking much harder to negotiate, hence the slow times. Jorge Thomas was the surprise package of the evening running in the colours of Cardiff AC, and raced to the Egg Stage prize in 3-30, and then second overall.

Nick Pearce celebrated his 52nd birthday to finish just behind Sharon Taylor to take the over 50 chocolate egg prizes, and along with 17 year old Alistair Brownlee and 14 year old Katie Ireland, had "Happy Birthday" sung to them by the slightly offkey fellrunning crowd. Once again it is staggering to have 277 athletes racing round 3miles of Harden Moor all for a Cadburys Crème Egg and vast amounts of chocolate, as these races celebrate their 13th year of existence.

NOTE; It has come to our attention that way back in the year 1999, before we had the U14 age group, that Mark Buckingham in BR1 ran 20-36 as a 13 year old, hence we have amended the U14 record.
