

29 year old Chris Steele descended from the Lake District to prove to the none believers that Lakeland fell runners do come out of their beloved fells and have a good turn of speed over more runnable fell courses. Chris could now be nicknamed 'Superman', because Ian Holmes has reigned supreme over the Stanbury course since 1996, many runners have tried to wrestle the Soreen crown from Ian's head, all have failed until now. Cheeky Chris made a pledge to Ian after the Auld Lang Syne race or was it more a New Year's resolution, that he would return and try to beat him at this race, because he couldn't believe that anyone could win a race so many times. 'For the ALS race I didn't ease down with my training and I felt a lot fresher today, my plan was to follow Ian and sit on his heels, until the final climb. Ian tends to push off the top of any hills to break you, which he had done to me at the ALS. Climbing out of Sladen Beck, through the steep fields I put the hammer down on the track, pushing off the top using Ian's tactic on himself, luckily I got in first and he couldn't respond. On the way back across the moor to the finish I was more worried about Stuart Bond who seemed to come from nowhere in the final stages.' Unbeknown to Chris, by a twist of fate, he also used the squidgy power of a Soreen Malt Loaf to dethrone Ian, arriving early at the race Chris was starving, so promptly demolished half a Malt Loaf to feed his hunger, did this give him the edge? Ian always has two slices of Malt Loaf for breakfast on race day. A school teacher at Cockermouth, Chris who was fourth in the British last year was introduced to running by Simon Booth some five years ago and in that time has run for England in the Snowdon Mountain race in 2009. With former British Fells champion Keith Anderson now coaching him his England vest tally must have potential to go up, he certainly has the calibre and commitment to become a champion. This July will see him and his fiancee Alice get married and in truly typical fell runner style or some would say mentality, Chris is planning to have a wedding day race. Ian always gracious in defeat said 'I set a true pace and Chris was the only one in the group who was willing to push it and keen to take it on. Around Ponden Kirk it was Chris and Stuart Bond following me, I tried several times to break them, but the legs just didn't want to work today.' Ian is still the record holder at 41-53 from 2006 and has won the veteran race now six times, and we are sure he will be back to win the open race again. In previous years the winning man or lady have received an oil painting of the Ponden valley by Margaret Pemberton besides their 'Crackerjack' style array of prizes, but Margaret has now retired, so Pudsey and Bramley artist Shane Green has used his talents to produce some fine etchings of the valley, which the first man and lady will receive.

Haworth GP Jo Buckley along with Chris was the recipient of an original Shane Green etching as she won the ladies race in 44th overall in 51-21 with Calder Valley team mate Helen Fines the British silver medalist last year over one and a half minutes behind. 'I set off far too fast and was struggling towards the end. I would have liked to have beaten Shane Green like I did at the ALS, but I still was really happy to win as I really wanted this one. Last week I represented the North at the McCain Cross Challenge in Cardiff and finished 5th which was pleasing, although I was a long way back from Charlotte Prudue the U20 European Cross Country Champion.' Three times the Soreen winner Helen Glover could only manage third, but did win the locals prize, while in fourth Yorkshire fells champion Aly Raw set a new FV40 record of 55-42 beating Suzanne Budgett's 2006 time of 55-53. The ladies of Ilkley won the team with Kelly Harrison, Sally Malir and Diane Haggard. The only other record setter was in the MV70 category by the Bunny Run MV70 champ Peter Covey who took nearly two minutes off Lawrence Sullivan's 2006 record to finish in 64-18 with over half the record field of 410 left in his wake. In the keenly contested locals trophy challenge race, Paul 'Crabbers' Crabtree finally got his hands on the trophy after last year training newcomer and team mate Christian Holmes to deny him the title.

A record 182 'Lean, Mean Squidgy Machine' junior runners enjoyed the delights of the twenty first Soreen Quarry Runs and the goodies on offer on the prize table as well as in the goody bags, but first they had to earn their reward by competing. This was a record turnout for all the Quarry Run courses, Stoop and Withins being the others, the previous best was 170 at the Withins last year, and the best previous Stanbury turnout was 144 in 2009, a far cry from the 5 and 7 juniors who turned out in 1995 and 1996. From a field of 49 eager under 8's William Wigg running in the colours of Todmorden took the honours from Edward Garner and Lewis Hodgson, part of William's reward was to start the senior race, in the girls race Ella Atkins repeated her victory just like in the Stoop race just before Christmas. The mud flew off the heels of the 120 boys and girls in the combined U10, U12 & U14 race, the buzz here is electric, the noise of the tiny feet stomping up the quarry climb is deafening and is only surpassed by the enthusiasm of the mums, dads, grandparents, family and friends cheering. First back to the rapturous applause was U14 Lewis Byram who won last year, he was chased all the way by English U12 champ Seth Waterman who has only just moved up age group, since last year he won the Withins and Stoop U12 races. Third U14 was Emile Cairness, before they finished thick and fast, in fourth was GU14 Harmonie Waterman, then came the battle for first U12 with James Lund holding off Joshua Newbold by one second, but chasing them down was U10 winner Jimmy Burke. Not to be outshone by Lewis Byram, his sisters, Lucy won the GU12's and Erica finished second GU12. Alex Baker of Pendle AC took the honours in the GU10 age group from Annie Brown and Beth Morley both of Ilkley Harriers. U16 Annabel Mason is becoming a champion in the making, because over the Christmas period she won the ladies senior prizes at Whinberry Naze and Giants Tooth, and here she finished second overall and reduced her own course record by twenty seconds, the only athlete to get the better of her was U16 Stoop winner Sam Haggard. The club with the biggest haul of prizes had to be Holmfirth Harriers who are fast becoming a force to be reckoned with under the watchful eye of coach Kath Farquhar and colleagues, is there a budding Mark Buckingham, Natalie White, Matthew Pierson, Lisa Lacon, Helen Berry, Sally Haigh, William Styant, Geoff Hall or the late great John Taylor in the making? One thing for sure, Holmfirth are top of the pile! It's very rewarding to see juniors progressing through the age groups and especially brothers and sisters competing, keep it up, remember there's always a goody bag no matter where you finish, but never share it with mum or dad unless they've run. Squidgy power to you all! A big thank you to Soreen for their enthusiastic support of these events.
